

Team Support Letters

Asking for financial support may be one of the most difficult parts of your team preparation process. However, keep in mind that God pays for what He orders! He has called you to be a part of this mission team and He will provide all the resources needed for you to go! Pray that God would bring to mind people whom He has blessed to be able to support you. Remember that God is calling you to physically go on this mission and He will call others to give in other ways, whether through prayer, time, talents or gifts. Don't answer for them..."Oh, they'd never want to give anything"...give them the opportunity to prayerfully consider helping you and your team financially or in other ways. We have found that support for our mission teams sometimes comes from the most unlikely places!

You will find two support letters on the ministry website (www.theservantsheart.org) that can be used by your team members to explain your mission trip and suggest ways in which family and friends, as well as businesses can assist them, as well as your team. Be sure to change the dates and name of your congregation within the letters before printing them off. We have also found that personally contacting people is many times even more effective.

May God richly bless your team, showering you with every resource you need!
